

PRESS RELEASE: Beth Levin - EUROPE TOUR: BERLIN - MUNICH - VIENNA

Klavier.Salon München opens its doors after a long COVID break with New York concert pianist Beth Levin incl. livestream!

Munich, 22 January 2024 - The renowned Klavier.Salon München is delighted to finally reopen its doors to music lovers after a long COVID break. As a prelude, the Klavier.Salon München will present the internationally renowned New York concert pianist Beth Levin on 19 March 2024 at 7:45 pm as part of her European tour.

Beth Levin, since her impressive debut at the age of twelve with the Philadelphia Orchestra, has been celebrated as a spirited interpreter of challenging works. Her repertoire ranges from the Romantic canon to leading modern composers, including David Del Tredici and Andrew Rudin, both of whom composed works especially for her. The New York Times praised Levin's "fire and originality", while the New Yorker described her playing as "revelatory".

The evening's programme includes works by Mozart, Heinz Tiessen and Schubert, including Mozart's Piano Sonata in A minor K 310, Tiessen's 5 Piano Pieces, original Op. 21, and Schubert's Piano Sonata in G major Opus 78-D894.

The special highlight for music lovers worldwide: the concert will also be streamed live on the Klavier.Salon München Facebook and YouTube pages. The live stream will start at 7.45 pm and will allow a wide audience to experience this extraordinary concert free of charge.
